19-12-2007

Shri P.S. Shrivas, Counsel for the petitioner.

Shri Ravindra Agrawal, Panel Lawyer, for the State.

Considering the grievance of the petitioner, comment was called from the concerned Additional Sessions Judge, Balod who vide his communication dated 27-9-2007 has denied that he refused to accept any application filed by the present petitioner and has further mentioned that since the matter was already adjudicated by the Court on 15-9-2004 and the property in question was directed to be returned to the petitioner after expiry of period of appeal in case no appeal is filed against the above judgment, therefore, the question of passing any interim order under Section 452 of Cr.P.C. does not arise.

	In view of the express stipulation in the impugned judgment and also considering the communication of Additional Sessions Judge, there is no substance in the petition as the trial Court has already passed order regarding disposal of the property seized during the investigation and produced in trial. The petition is dismissed. Sd/- Dhirendra Mishra Judge
